The music of the film was composed by Anu Malik and lyrics were by Anand Bakshi and Rajat Arora. The soundtrack of the film earned a nomination for Best Music Direction at the Filmfare Awards. The song "Main Ragoon Hoon" was also very well received. The film garnered critical acclaim and was one of the biggest hits of the year, but it failed to win any major awards.

Anil Kapoor won the Filmfare Best Actor Award and Aishwarya Rai Bachchan received the Best Actress Award. About the film Ram Gopal Varma wrote the script for this film and thus found himself in the same position as he had been in with Rajkumar Santoshi's Mard. However, he chose to distance himself from Mard with a major disclaimer on the back cover of the DVD that stated, "Mard was a copy of the Ram Gopal Varma film 'Hamara Dil Aapke Paas Hai'. Directed by a person who has the same name as the director of the film (R.G. Varma). This movie [Hamara Dil Aapke Paas Hai] is meant only for entertainment purposes." Some said that the film was inspired by the 1955 movie Sab Kuch Kabhi Na Gaya, which starred Pradeep Kumar. Director Ram Gopal Varma later explained that he was inspired by a scene from the 1966 Hindi film Bawarchi, a film that had just been released. However, the film was based on a real-life incident. The original incident is said to have taken place in October 1989. In the movie, the victim is addressed by the name "Preeti". However, in the real life incident, the name was changed to Preeti. Another original character of the film is named "Nair", but she is actually based on Ujala, a real-life rape victim. The character is also named "Preeti". Plot Hamara Dil Aapke Paas Hai is the story of Preeti (Aishwarya Rai Bachchan), a rich and free-spirited girl who lives in Bombay, and Shankar (Anil Kapoor), an auto-rickshaw driver. The story is set in mid 1990s. Preeti is a simple and pure girl who would do anything for the people who have helped her in her life. She comes from a middle-class family. She has 82157476af
